Cheer Apartments is located in Georgetown and is unique with its "Town Circle" instead of your normal Town square. The buildings and businesses in the circle were restored in 1976. It is also the capital of Sussex County. The community has a small town charm with a historic appeal.

The city of Georgetown contains multiple country clubs and fitness gyms. Residents are also close to the Georgetown public library and a 95-acre complex for recreational use. They also hold a half day long parade called "Return Day" and a festival.

Georgetown is a part of the Indian River School District which contains 2 elementary schools (North Georgetown, Georgetown), 1 middle school (North Georgetown), 1 high school (Sussex Central), the Howard T. Ennis School and Richard Allen School.
