Virginia Crest Village is located in the city of Seaford and is the largest city within Sussex County, located perfectly along the Nanticoke River. Seaford is a growing city whose Main Street underwent major renovations to preserve the city's old fashion charm.

Seaford offers a wide variety of activities for its residents. Being minutes away from parks, museums, sports complex, and a country club there is always something to do. The City also holds annual Parades and festivals for the community.

Seaford belongs to the Seaford School District which contains 3 elementary schools (Seaford central, West Seaford, and Blades), 1 high school (Seaford high), 1 middle school (Seaford middle) and 1 intermediate school (Douglass).
